For my classroom/ office/ work area

We always need (listed on Amazon list, can be bought elsewhere): laminating sheets, cardstock (white), play-dough

We also need donations of hand-me-down shorts and pants, sized 5T-youth small (we have plenty of smaller sizes).

We would love to increase our collection of tricycles, scooters, wagons, and "cozy coupe" type ride-in/on vehicles for our students. If you know of anyone who is giving away any of these items, we would be grateful to receive gently-used donations.

For me

I read using my Nook and Kindle; I have a Harry Potter closet under my stairs that I collect HP items for; I love unusual or new board/card games; I love any and all office supplies (pens, markers, dry erase markers, sticky notes, note pads, etc).

One more thing

Additional ideas not included above

I love receiving homemade cards and pictures drawn by students. I cherish cards I have received from my student's families.
